ABOUT US

Margate Design Collective was founded by Jessica du Preez and Joanna Moore - two experienced and AMUSF qualified upholsterers with over 10 years joint experience in traditional and modern practices.

We have built a small team of passionate makers with experience in sewing and upholstery and pride ourselves on being able to tackle any creative upholstery endeavour that is thrown our way.

With connections to the interiors, commercial, set-design and film industry, we have experience in using upholstery in a diverse range of projects and complete designs from initial technical drawings through to installation. We relish challenges and are constantly using the craft of upholstery in unusual and unexpected ways.
